BYLAWS
OF
CHANNEL 10/36 FRIENDS, INC.

ARTICLE I
General

Section 1.  Purpose of Corporation. The purposes of this Corporation shall be as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation. These Bylaws specify various matters affecting the operations and governance of the Corporation.

Section 2.  Solicitation and Receipt of Gifts. The Corporation shall seek gifts, contributions, donations and bequests (herein generally called “gifts”) for its purposes. While the Corporation specifically encourages unrestricted gifts whose principal and/or income therefrom may be used for the Corporation’s purposes in the discretion of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, the Board of Directors will accept gifts for a restricted or otherwise designated purpose if such restriction is determined by the Board of Directors to be acceptable or otherwise conforms with these Bylaws and any other guidelines established by the Board of Directors for such restricted gifts.

ARTICLE II
Members

Section 1.  Classes. Classes of membership shall be determined by a vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 2.  Designation of Members. The Board of Directors shall determine membership dues.

Section 3.  Responsibilities and Voting Rights of Members.

(a) Members shall have no responsibilities or voting rights on any matter except as specifically set forth herein.

(b) Any voting rights specified herein shall be exercised only by the members acting as a whole, and not by classes, except as otherwise specifically provided. Each member shall be entitled to one vote on any matter submitted to a vote of the members as a whole or of any class, except as otherwise specifically provided.

(c) The only matters as to which the members shall have any voting rights are as follows:

(1) Members shall have voting rights for elections of the Board.
Section 4. Method of Voting; Proxies; Ballots.

(a) Proxies. Each member may vote or execute consents in person or by one or more agents authorized by a written proxy executed by the member and filed with the Secretary of the Corporation. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months following the date of its execution, unless the member executing it specifies the length of time for which it is to continue in force. The effect of proxies and the manner of their execution, revocation and exercise shall be governed by the laws of the State of Wisconsin. If this Corporation has corporate memberships, a corporate member’s vote may be cast by the President of the corporation, or by any officer or proxy appointed by the President of such corporation, in the absence of express notice of the designation of some other person by the board of directors or by-laws of such corporate member.

(b) Ballots. Any action to be taken at an annual, regular or special meeting of the members may be taken without a meeting if the Corporation delivers a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. The written ballot shall set forth each proposed action and provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action and must state (1) the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements, (2) the percentage of approvals necessary to approve each matter other than the election of directors, and the time by which the ballot must be received by the Corporation in order to be counted. An action decided by ballot shall be valid if the quorum and voting requirements for such action to be considered at a meeting are met.

(c) Presumed Approval of Nominating Committee Recommendation. Members not returning a ballot for elections of Board Members shall be presumed to have voted for the candidates proposed by the Nominating Committee.

Section 5. Meetings.

(a) Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of the members shall be held each year. Failure to hold the annual meeting shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the corporation.

(b) Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members may be called by the Chair, the Board of Directors or ten percent (10%) of the membership upon petition to the Board of Directors stating the purpose of such meeting or by such other officers or such other proportion of members as may be provided in the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. In the event that a petition from the membership is duly received and complies with the requirements set forth herein, the Board shall call such meeting within 45 days of receipt of such petition.

Section 6. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the members may be held at any place within or without Wisconsin.

Section 7. Notices. Notice of any meeting of the members of the Corporation, in each case specifying the place, date and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which it is called, shall be given to each member by delivering notice, orally or in writing, not less than 30 days prior to the date of the meeting but at least 10 days prior to the date of the meeting or, if notification is by mail, by mailing such notice at least 15 days before the time set for such meeting, unless a different time shall be prescribed for a particular action by Chapter 181 of the Wisconsin Statutes. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, with postage prepaid, addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation. In lieu of such notice, notice may be given by publishing the same as a class 2 notice under Chapter 985 of the Wisconsin Statutes, near the principal office of the Corporation. Inclusion of notices required by these Bylaws or Wisconsin law within any publication of the Corporation which is sent to the membership shall be acceptable written notice.

Section 8.  Waiver of Notice. The transactions of any meeting of the members of the Corporation, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present and if, either before or after the meeting, a written waiver of notice of the meeting, containing the same information as would have been required to be included in a proper notice of the meeting, is signed by the member or members entitled thereto. Such waiver shall contain the same information as would have been required to be included in such notice, except that the time and place of the meeting need not be stated. All such waivers shall be filed with and made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section 9.  Action Without Meeting. Any action which may be taken at a meeting of the members may be taken without a meeting if at least 50% of the members shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as the vote of the members at a meeting duly called and held. Written notice of member approval shall be given to all members who have not signed the written consent. If member approval by written consent is less than unanimous, any such actions contemplated by such consent will be effective 10 days after the aforementioned notice has been given.

Section 10.  Quorum; Action. The members present shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the members present at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act or decision of the members, unless the law, the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation or these Bylaws require a greater proportion.

Section 11.  Adjournment. Any meeting of the members, whether annual or special, and whether or not a quorum is present, may be adjourned from time to time by the Board. Notice of the time and place of an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent members if said time and place are fixed at the meeting adjourned. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting adjourned.

Section 12.  Transfers; Termination; Expulsion. No member may transfer membership or any right or rights arising therefrom unless transfer is authorized by the Articles of Incorporation or, if the Articles of Incorporation so provide, these Bylaws. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, membership shall be terminated by death, voluntary withdrawal, or expulsion, and thereafter all the rights of the member in the Corporation shall cease. A member may be expelled by an affirmative vote of two-thirds (%) of the members entitled to vote on the matter, or of two-thirds (%) of the Directors where there are no members entitled to vote on the matter.

Section 13. Organization. The Chair of the Corporation, or in the absence of the Chair, an acting chair chosen by a majority of the members present, shall act as chair at every meeting of the members. The Secretary of the Corporation, or in the absence of the Secretary any person appointed by the chair of the meeting, shall act as Secretary of the meeting.

ARTICLE III

Section 1. Powers. Subject to the limitations of the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, these Bylaws and the laws of the State of Wisconsin, the affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Number; Election; Term.

(a) The number of Directors of this Corporation shall be not less than fifteen (15) and not more than thirty (30). Except as otherwise provided herein with respect to the terms of the initial Directors, each Director shall hold office for a term of three (3) years or until such Director’s successor shall have been duly elected or until such Director’s death, resignation or removal. Directors may be re-elected to serve more than one term in office but no person may serve as a Director for more than nine (9) consecutive years. (a) Each member of the Board shall be a member in good standing of the Corporation.

(b) Selection of a Board member shall be without regard to race, color, religion, sex or national origin.

Section 4. Resignation. A Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation, who shall advise the Board of Directors of such resignation. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if no time is specified, then upon receipt of the resignation by the Secretary of the Corporation, and unless otherwise specified therein, acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5. Removal. Any individual Director may be removed from office, with cause or for any reason provided in the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, by the action of two thirds (2/3) of the Directors at a special meeting called for such purpose, or by a majority of the member(s).

Section 6. Vacancies. A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors occurring for any reason, including an increase in the authorized number of Directors, may be filled by the Chair subject to the approval of a majority of the Directors then in office, even though less than a quorum. Each Director so elected shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term such Director was elected to fill or until such Director's successor is elected and qualified, or until such Director's death, resignation or removal.
Section 7. Meetings.

(a) Annual Meeting. A regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held each year during the month of September or October at such time and place as may be designated by the Chair of the Corporation, or by the Vice-Chair if the Chair is unable to act, for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

(b) Other Regular Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall hold three (3) other regular meetings per year with notice at such time and place as the Board of Directors may designate.

(c) Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose or purposes shall be held whenever called, upon forty-eight (48) hours prior notice, by the Chair of the Corporation, or if the Chair is absent or is unable or refuses to act, by the Vice-Chair, or by a majority of Directors.

Section 8. Notices. With the exception of regular meetings as set forth in Section 6(b) above of this Article, notice of any meeting of the Board of Directors, in each case specifying the place, date and hour of the meeting, shall be given to each Director by delivering notice, orally or in writing, not more than thirty (30) days but not less than ten (10) days prior to the date of the meeting, if notification is by mail, by mailing such notice at least ten (10) days before the time set for such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, with postage prepaid, addressed to the Director at the Director's address as it appears on the records of the Corporation. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose, of any meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of such notice of such meeting.

Section 9. Waiver of Notice. The transaction of any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present and if, either before or after the meeting, a written waiver of notice of the meeting, containing the same information as would have been required to be included in a proper notice of the meeting, is signed by (a) each Director not present at the meeting and (b) each Director present at the meeting who objected thereto to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. All such waivers shall be filed with and made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Section 10. Action Without Meeting. Any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if all the Directors shall consent in writing to such action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of the Directors.

Section 11. Quorum: Action of Directors. Not less than one-third (1/3) of the members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act or decision of the Board of Directors, unless the act of a greater proportion is required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

Section 12. Adjournment. Any meeting of the Board of Directors, whether regular or special, and whether or not a quorum is present, may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of the Directors present. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting adjourned.

Section 13. Organization. The Chair of the Corporation, or in the absence of the Chair, an acting Chair chosen by a majority of the Directors present, shall act as Chair at every meeting of the Board of Directors. The Secretary of the Corporation, or in the absence of the Secretary any person appointed by the Chair of the meeting, shall act as Secretary of the meeting.

Section 14. Compensation. No member of the Board of Directors may receive any compensation for their services as Directors. Board members may receive reimbursement of expenses in attending any meeting of the Board of Directors or in otherwise fulfilling their duties as Directors hereunder. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity, or receiving reasonable compensation therefor.

Section 15. Committees; General Provisions.

(a) Standing or Temporary Advisory Committees Without Board Authority. The Executive Committee shall designate standing and/or temporary committees to consider appropriate matters, make reports to the Chair and/or Board of Directors, and fulfill such other advisory functions as it may designate. (b) Executive or Other Committees with Limited Board Authority. The Board of Directors may by appropriate resolution designate one or more committees, each of which shall consist of three (3) or more Directors elected by the Board of Directors, which to the extent provided in said resolutions or in these Bylaws, shall have and may exercise, when the Board of Directors is not in session, the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the affairs of the Corporation, except action with respect to election of officers, filling of vacancies in the Board of Directors, or the formation of or filling of vacancies in committees with limited board authority pursuant to this subsection. The Board of Directors may elect one or more Directors as alternate members of any such committee, who may take the place of any absent committee member or members at any meeting of such committee. The designation of such committee or committees and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors or any individual Director of any responsibility imposed upon the Board of Directors or any individual Director by law.
Section 16. Standing Committees.

(a) Executive Committee. The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors shall consist of its officers, the chairs of its current committees, the immediate past Chair of the Board, the General Manager of Channels 10/36, and such other members of the board as appointed by the Chair.

The Executive Committee is charged with the duties and responsibilities of the Board and is authorized to act on behalf of the Board between its regular or special meetings except action in respect to election of officers, filling Board vacancies, hiring/firing of the President, and amendments of the Bylaws.

Section 2. Bank Accounts. The Board of Directors from time to time may authorize the opening and keeping of general and/or special bank accounts with such banks, trust companies or other depositaries as may be selected by the Board or by any officer or officers, agent or agents of the Corporation to whom such power may be delegated from time to time by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may make such rules and regulations with respect to said bank accounts, not inconsistent with the provisions of these bylaws as the Board may deem expedient.

The Corporation shall indemnify its employees and authorized agents, acting within the scope of their duties as such, to the same extent as Directors or Officers hereunder. The rights to indemnification granted hereunder shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to indemnification against Liabilities or the advancement of Expenses to which such person may be entitled under any written agreement, board resolution, vote of members, the Statute or otherwise. The Corporation may, but shall not be required to, supplement the right to indemnification against Liability and advancement of Expenses under this Section 1 by the purchase of insurance on behalf of any one or more of such persons, whether or not the Corporation would be obligated to indemnify such person under this Section 1. The term “Statute,” as used in this Article, shall mean Sections 181.0871 through 181.0883 of the Wisconsin Nonstock Corporation Law and all amendments thereto which permit or require the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than prior to the amendment.
